

Find food support during the school holidays

Find out what food support is available for children and young people who are eligible for Free School Meals during school holidays when the Holiday Activities and Food programme is not running.

Step 1 – Community food support

Looking for everyday food support?

Find free and low-cost food support in your local community, including food banks, community fridges and local support services.

Step 2 – Half-term food provision with activities

Looking for food support with activities during February, May or October half term?

A small number of half-term sessions are available that include a free meal for children and young people who are eligible for Free School Meals. These sessions are not part of the Holiday Activities and Food programme and run outside of the main school holiday periods.

The focus of these sessions is on providing food and a supportive space for children and young people, with activities offered alongside the meal.

Bookings are made through the Family Hubs system.

Places are limited and priority is given to children and young people who need the most support.

Step 3 – Urgent or crisis help

Need urgent help with food or finances?

If you're experiencing a food crisis or need immediate support, help is available.

Get access to emergency food, financial guidance and wider family support through the Crisis and Resilience Fund.
